Subject: Yesterday's Times Free Press article

Chairman Henry,

I heard you on WGOW this morning, and you acquitted yourself most excellently. Like Jeff Styles, I also was shocked that the Chattanooga Times Free Press chose to put the article (or non-article as far as I'm concerned) on the front page above the fold, which is reserved for the most important story of the day. In my opinion, there are a lot more pressing issues going on in Chattanooga.

Personally, I think the worst thing about the story was the headline, but that is quite often the case. The story was - as they say in Texas - all hat no cattle. There was really no substance to the story for those who took the time to read it. Unfortunately, most people don't bother to do that. Personally, I am just glad it's over. Hopefully, we won't have to deal with Mr. Whisenhunt again.
